

This letter validates that DogtTS agreed to $1,000.00 per month and that Rutland Manor has kept its part of the Agreement. J M 's comment in the letter below assuming that he would be receiving 30K a month in regular shipping charges when the agreement was made, was purely an assumption on his part and was never mentioned previously.

His reference to expecting a shipment to leave every week has no previous history to support such an expectation. We have never bred so many puppies that we have had puppies leaving every week! Beverley

Hi Beverley,

I trust that you are well.

I have had my bank manager on the phone pointing out to me that this is a ridiculous situation that I find myself in with Rutland Manor.

We made an agreement that we would receive $1000 per month which we have been receiving, but we did expect shipments every week with a turnover of ~$30K per month. This second part has not been happening over the past 2-3 months.

I have the impression that Rutland Manor are in "wind up" mode in relation to the Labradoodles, if this is the case then I am reluctant to accept only $1000 per month with no Labradoodles to transport. You must understand that I am having to pay on an overdraft plus the fees that accompany such an overdraft, which I was willing to accept if we transported dogs, but with little or no transport cannot be accepted or afforded any more.

Please let me know if my assumption is correct and if so what can be done to rectify. If my assumption is incorrect, and I am certainly hoping that this is the case that the status quo will remain.

This would possible be seen as a catch 22 position from your point of view, but I am being forced to make some tough decisions which even though I might not feel comfortable with still need to be made.

I look forward to your comments

Regards

J M

Good morning Leanne,

I hope you had a nice week end.

Please write out a cheque for $10,000.00 (ten thousand dollars) from out of our overdraft and post it to Dogts Monday (which will be today by the time you are reading this).

Also, please organize $1,000.00 (one thousand dollars) off my loan account to be sent each month to Dogts commencing 30th March when you write out all the month's bills.

Thanks,

Bev
